From a world of childhood dreams...

The Victorian Rocking Horse

An elaborate sculpture of fine porcelain, hand-painted in soft pastels and precious 22 carat gold.

Shown smaller than actual size of 7½" high.

It's as if he's come to life from a world of happy dreams from days gone by. Generations of children have gazed at them longingly through toy shop windows. Pressing their noses to the glass to view the magical steeds of their dreams.

This is The Victorian Rocking Horse, an original work of art that's more fanciful, more enchanting than any child ever dreamed. A delightful example of Brooks & Bentley artistry as its most sumptuous and exuberant.

A treasure from the past to enjoy today

The Victorian Rocking Horse is both a nostalgic tribute to those masterpieces of yesterday and a superb work of art, delicately sculpted and lavishly adorned with blossoms and bows, flowing pink ribbons and an elegant plume. Its lush mane is braided – its saddle is elaborately carved – its tail in curls. Each tiny detail of its fairy-tale trappings is perfectly captured in fine bisque porcelain.

Created of fine porcelain, in lavish Victorian style

This magnificent sculpture is decorated and painted by hand in soft pastel hues – from the tiny lavender flowers, to the dainty pink bows, and the graceful floral scroll that adorns the rocker. And the saddle, bridle and hooves are hand embellished with gleaming touches of pure 22 carat gold.

The Victorian Rocking Horse is an original work, created in a century-old tradition of artistry and craftsmanship and priced at only £66.00* payable in three monthly instalments. To bring this special touch of Victorian charm into your home you need send no money now. Simply return your reservation form to Brooks & Bentley by the date it bears.

A SEASON OF SCREAMS ON CABLE IN JUNE

June has crypt up on us quickly and offers some kooky, spooky, altogether ooky movies, including the British television premiere of The Addams Family, one of the highest grossing films of 1991/92!

The season of screams continues with the film premieres of The People Under the Stairs, Body Parts, Jacob's Ladder and Tales from the Darkside, starring Christian Slater and Debbie Harry.

You might prefer to laugh along with Danny DeVito, who's making off with Other People's Money, and Lenny Henry who lightens up his act in True Identity.

Also, don't miss the fantastical romance, The Fisher King, starring Robin Williams and Jeff Bridges, and the frenetic farce Soapdish, starring Whoopi Goldberg. It's all on cable this month — see pick of the premieres below.

In this month's Videotron customer pages, we also bring you news of the enhanced features available for phone users (see page 2), the winning entries from our Eggcellent Easter Colouring Competition plus, in this month's competition, details on how you can win a trip to see Bobby Brown in concert!

Plus, there's the usual Pick on Cable — see page 3. It's all in these pages this month . . . enjoy them!

The phone revolution

In addition to the enormous savings to be had by taking the Telephone Service from Videotron, and the improved sound quality afforded by our state-of-the-art network, we can now offer some very useful enhanced features to make your life easier!

CALL WAITING

Allows you to know when another caller is trying to contact you.

When you're engaged on a call and a second person is trying to connect with you, a bleep can be heard in your earpiece and the second caller is told that the network is trying to connect them.

You can switch easily between the first and second call — an invaluable feature in an emergency or if you don't won't to miss anyone who's calling you!

CALL BARRING

Stops anybody from using your phone without your permission!

Various levels of call barring are available, such as barring international or premium calls. A great feature if you want to stop your children from calling these expensive 0898 numbers and a great way of keeping call charges down.

CALL DIVERT

You might not always be in for that important phone call. With call divert, you can forward all your calls to the place where you're going to be, whether it's round your parents for Sunday dinner, on your mobile phone, or even halfway round the world!

REMINDER CALL

If you need to have your memory jogged at any time, your phone will ring at the exact time that you have programmed into it any day of the week.

SHORT-CODE DIALLING

Regular use of a preset telephone number can be made considerably easier by the use of this handy feature. At the touch of a button you can automatically call any number that you use regularly: be it your friends, the cinema or your local takeaway.

3-WAY CALL

Allows you to conduct a three-way conversation, be it a family conference or surprise greeting to relations abroad. A useful feature which could save you time and energy!

Equivalent to just 5p a day!

Choose one of these features and it will cost you around 5p a day at just £1.49 per month! The more enhanced features you add on to your basic service, the cheaper each will be:

|---|---|
| 1 Feature £1.49 | 2 Features £2.49 |
| 3 Features £2.99 | 4 Features £3.49 |
| 5 Features £3.99 | 6 Features £4.49 |

All costs are inclusive of VAT

- To find out more about adding any of these features to your service, call Customer Services.

The sporting life

The end of the Premier League and some splendid coverage of the Saints (four exclusively live matches in total) doesn't mean an end to Sky's premier coverage on football.

On 2 June, Sky cameras go live to England v Norway and on 7 August there's live coverage of the Charity Shield. Late July will mark the start of the Premier League 93/94 season!

Until then, sports fans will find a great selection of sporting events on Sky Sports including live tennis action from Beckenham starting 2 June and the from Stella Artois tournament starting on 7 June.

There's also some comprehensive golf coverage from the US Open and French Open (17 and 24 June) plus rugby union coverage with the Super 10 Championships kicking off on 21 - 25 June and continuing on 28 - 30 June.

Out of the ball park there's coverage from the wild and wacky WWF King of the Ring on 14 June and the Superbike challenge live from San Marino on 27 June.

Meanwhile, on Eurosport there's live and exclusive coverage of the Indy Car circuit, starting with the Miller Genuine Draft 200 from Wisconsin oval track on 6 June and the Automotive Detroit Grand Prix from the Michigan road circuit on 13 June. Then it's on to Budweiser GI Joe's 200 from Portland, Oregon, on 27 June.

Camels take to the course

Take 69 camels and jockeys from six different nations, cover with flies, soak in swirling floods and barbecue in the Australian outback for three months.

This is the Great Camel Race, the longest test of animal endurance ever, running through 3,000km of breakthaking scenery from Alice Springs to the Gold Coast of Queensland. The jockeys are spurred on by the pure adventure and, of course, by the £50,000 prize money — let's hope the camels don't get the hump!

A Discovery Channel special showing on Tuesdays at 11pm, starting Tuesday 1 June.

Beauty of the beast

Everyone loves a dolphin, their child-like charm and their naughty yet naive nature. For years we've been fascinated by their grace and intelligence, with ancient tribes attributing divine characteristics to them.

Recent research shows that dolphins communicate in several dialects and languages, just as humans do. The Dolphin Phenomenon explores what is now known about these mysterious mammals, as an underwater camera crew spent three months, using specially-developed camera technology, to record the dolphins' extraordinary behaviour.

There is unique footage of dolphins giving birth and a visit to Monkey Mia beach in western Australia where for decades a community of bottlenose dolphins has interacted with humans.

While our knowledge of dolphins continues to increase, their mystique remains unchanged. Monday 21 June at 8pm and again on Saturday 26, 11pm, only on Discovery.

'Don't ask for the moon, we have the stars . . .'

. . . on Bravo this month with a season of films from one of Hollywood's biggest stars, Bette Davis, Saturday nights at 8pm throughout June. Starting off with The Letter on 5 June, Voyager on 12 June, followed by Mr Skeffington on 19 June and finishing with Deception on 26 June.

Winners give Bugs a splash of colour

Thank you for all the terrific and extremely colourful Eggcellent Easter Colouring Competition entries. We had hundreds sent in and judging the winners was an enjoyable but very difficult task! Well done to our grand prize winners (who win a very special larger-than-life Bugs Bunny).

They are: Leanna Marie Wall of Acton and Craig Stroud of Sholing (4 - 8 years category) and Kally Chhokran of Southampton and Yvette Gooding of Shepherds Bush (9 - 15 years). Four runners-up win cuddly bunnies, and they are Zoya Todorovic of London W3, Fabian Kerr of Camberwell, Lee Fowler of Shirley, Parrjit Johal of Shirley and Lindsay Flounders of Thornhill.

Even if you didn't win, your eggcellent efforts won't go unrewarded, because everybody who entered our competition, gets some balloons and badges for taking part!

CAN'T STOP THIS THING WE STARTED...

Our new non-stop 24-hour video request channel, The Box, has proved a tremendous hit with Southampton viewers!

In this month's free prize draw, The Box has got one pair of tickets for Bobby Brown's Wembley Arena concert on 27 June — guaranteed to have you moving, grooving and gyrating in your seats!

Runners-up will receive a copy of his latest album, Bobby.

Simply fill in the coupon below and post to The Box Competition, Videotron House, 11 - 29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, London SE13 5AU by 20 June 1993. The first name pulled from a hat will win.

Dynasty

UK GOLD Weekdays 4.00pm

JOAN COLLINS is now 57 (that's what she claims anyway) and in her remarkable small-screen career she has been in some scrapes.

She has popped up in various guises in The Virginian, The Man from U.N.C.L.E., Mission Impossible, Space 1999, The Bawdy Adventures of Tom Jones, Starsky and Hutch and Tales of the Unexpected, among others. But surely she can never have come in for as much violence and abuse as she does this month in the role for which she will always be remembered, Alexis Carrington Colby Dexter in Dynasty.

OK, so Joan excelled as the cold, calculating bitch that trampled the lives and feelings of less deadly characters underfoot. But did she deserve this?

June starts with Alexis and Krystle (Linda Evans) being rescued from a burning cabin. In the next episode an unknown man in surgical garb tries to smother the wicked one.

A couple of days later Kirby Anders (Kathleen Beller) goes for Alexis's jugular. And before the episode is over Blake Carrington (John Forsythe) is lashing out at his former Missus in court. Before she has had time to wreck any more lives Alexis has her apartment ransacked in the next Dynasty instalment.

But just when she could be forgiven for feeling less popular than a smelly sock, along comes love in the form of Dex Dexter (so good they named him twice).

You can't keep a bad woman down! ■

The Food Wiz in Oz!

TLC The Learning Channel

Floyd on Oz
Sundays 1.30pm from 1st June

AGAINST A BACKGROUND of lively anecdotes and vivid impressions of people and places, celebrated supercook Keith Floyd is taking The Learning Channel viewers on a culinary adventure to sample the variety and deliciousness of Australian cookery.

Beginning in Sydney, where he conjures up a seafood chowder while standing knee-deep in Watsons Bay, Floyd's journey takes him all over Australia from the cities to the bush outback. Wherever he goes he sets up his all-purpose stove and even manages to cook a steak on the engine of his jeep.

With its mix of European, Thai, Vietnamese and Indonesian cuisine, Australia is a melting pot of culinary influences.

This is reflected in Floyd's recipes, which vary from turmeric chicken, Thai fish cakes and Afghan curry to more traditional fare, like kangaroo tail soup and whole baked snapper with pine nut stuffing.

Warning: tucking in to this 10-part series could make you hungry.

WIN! WIN! WIN! WIN! WIN!

CABLE GUIDE has 10 copies of the book that accompanies the Floyd on Oz series to give away!

The book is split in two halves: the first is an appetising diary of Floyd's jaunt Down Under; the second is a main course of recipes and fascinating food insights.

To enter the draw for a copy of Floyd on Oz, each worth £9.99, just pick the correct answer to this simple question: Keith Floyd owns a pub in (a) Devon (b) Scotland (c) Ulster

Send your answer on a postcard to Floyd Competition, Cable Guide, Communications House, 5 Factory Lane, Croydon CR9 3RA. Closing date is 12 June 1993. ■

June's Star Line-up on Cable

Young Indy

The Young Indiana Jones Chronicles

Sundays
7.00pm

BEFORE HE grew up to deal with the Raiders of the Lost Ark and the Temple of Doom, Indiana Jones was just a young slip of a lad who played with spies, bandits and explorers.

Not make-believe adversaries, of course, but the real thing. Sky One is showing the rip-roaring round-the-world adventures of the embryonic superhero, The Young Indiana Jones Chronicles.

Coming from George Lucas, the man behind the Star Wars and Indiana Jones movies, this series has travelled the globe to use exotic locations and international stars.

The British contingent includes actors Harry Enfield, Terry Jones and Vanessa Redgrave; the directors' roster boasts Nicolas Roeg (Don't Look Now, Bad Timing); while the breathless action switches from London to Kenya, Spain, Egypt, India, Russia, China, France and Austria among other settings.

Three actors relatively new to TV play Indy at different ages: George Hall is 90-year-old Indy; Sean Patrick Flanery is Indy aged 16; and Corey Carrier is Indy at 10 years. ■

Temptress Maria

Glyndebourne Season
See the listings, starting on page 50, for details

ONE OF THE opera world's most flamboyant stars, the American soprano Maria Ewing, features three times in the Performance Channel's very own Glyndebourne Festival this month. While the Glyndebourne opera house is being rebuilt during the summer months, cable viewers can enjoy six productions from recent festivals at the Sussex venue. These are The Child and the Spells, Arabella, The Love of Three Oranges, and Maria Ewing at her bewitching, hot-blodded best in The Coronation of Poppea (pictured here), The Barber of Seville and Carmen. ■

Top-class computer fun

Games World

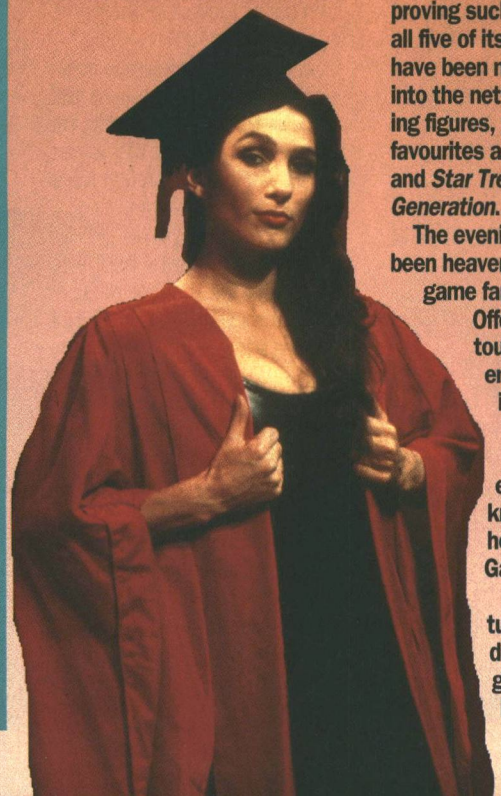
Weekdays
6.00pm



THIS IS THE Gamesmistress and if she hasn't yet given you a lesson in gamesmanship you don't know what you're missing.

Sky One's Games World is proving such a massive hit that all five of its weekday editions have been nudging their way into the network's top 10 viewing figures, pushing aside such favourites as The Simpsons and Star Trek: The Next Generation.

The evening excitement has been heaven for computer game fans.

Offering a mix of tough challenges, entertainment and info, this high-energy series is also appealing to viewers who wouldn't know a sonic hedgehog from a Gameboy.

Games World features games shows, demos of new games and kit, interactive phone contests for viewers – including strip poker – tips on how to win by cheating, and by using the latest technology it transports viewers into the heart of videogames.

Gamesmistress Diane Youdale – also known as Jet from the Gladiators – is on hand on Thursdays for Cheat Night offering hands-on advice.

The full line-up is:

MONDAY – The Eliminator, a 'brutal' gameshow.

TUESDAY – The House of Games features Jane Goldman (wife of Jonathan Ross) and Neil West of Mega magazine reviewing new games and hardware.

WEDNESDAY – Try Your Luck, a live interactive gameshow.

THURSDAY – the Peep Parlour offers advice on how to beat the most difficult games.

FRIDAY – The winner of Monday's game returns to Beat the Elite, which consists of champion players from around the country. ■

Live wires!

Viewers are enjoying a new kind of television with Wire TV. The £21 million cable network is live, very lively and unpredictable. Choosing the presenters for its challenging format was hard for the channel's producers, who went through hundreds of videos, CVs and radio cassettes. Please now meet Wire TV's three selected weekday presenters, Kathryn, Sheryl and John

Kathryn Apanowicz

Afternoon Live

1.00pm-5.00pm

'I THINK THIS is one of the most exciting ventures in Television today,' says Kathryn. 'It's possibilities are endless.'

Kathryn may be familiar to viewers through her acting, having appeared in Angels, Victoria Wood and EastEnders. She was chosen to start the day on Wire TV because of her gregarious personality.

She started her career as a presenter in children's TV and has also had her own radio show.

All and sundry will be passing through Kathryn's studio to chat with her, from health experts and agony aunts to famous actors and sports personalities.

'For a presenter Wire TV is meglomania time.

'I've got four hours on screen! Compared to acting this is mega-unpredictable and that's what I thrive on.

'This is like doing Children in Need every day.'

Sheryl Simms

The Sheryl Simms Show

5.00pm-8.00pm

'IT DEMANDS a lot of energy because it's daily and for three hours you're live,' says Sheryl.

'I've done live radio before but live TV is different because you have got to be conscious of how you look all the time and also there's no autocue. I've just a clipboard and notes. Thinking on your feet is what it's all about.'

Sheryl has presented and produced a weekly show on BBC GLR and appeared on sports programmes and The Clothes Show. Style and humour were the two features that attracted the Wire TV producers to her.

'Within my show is a slot called Wired World which is aimed at young people.

'We have anything from music and film reviews, advice on money, computer games . . . anything and everything that will interest young people. It's not supposed to be slick, anything goes.'

John Hammond

Tonight Live

8.00pm-11.00pm

'THERE'S a real buzz about this,' John says. 'I love live television. It gets the adrenalin running.'

John has become well-known over the last five years as the 'voice of BBC Radio Leeds'. He has also fronted the YTV series Stargazers and Children in Need for the BBC in Yorkshire.

'In the evenings we will be totally accessible by phone to viewers so we'll never be sure who's coming on. I think we'll be meeting some extraordinary characters. We'll be tackling some hard-hitting issues between 10.30 and 11.00pm.

'Between 8.00 to 9.00pm it's sport oriented with some of the more unusual sports like gaelic football and angling. We've got an agony uncle, and there'll be items on male grooming and dress sense. We've got great presenters and I think people will find them a lot of fun. And there'll be one or two shocks in there.'

On the road with Wire TV

CATCH UP WITH Wire TV's roving reporter Georgie Spanswick and the rest of the team as they hit the road every weekday on their tour of the UK's cabled cities. Among the team are History Detective Marcus Merriman and Pet Vets Ian Baker and Michael Payne.

1-4 June: Bristol

Get wired for sound and tune to Kingswood 93, the Southwest's massive youth and musical festival, while Georgie gets to grips with things agricultural at the popular North Somerset Shop.

7-11 June: Liverpool

Live from Liverpool, Georgie meets some of the singers and musicians taking part in the Africa Oye festival, a celebration of Afro-Caribbean music. And water babies can catch up with the Mersey River Festival.

14-18 June: Croydon

Catch up with the Wire TV team as they make a splash at the Water Palace, South London's biggest indoor water park. Plus there's afternoon fun in Crystal Palace Park.

21-25 June: Cambridge

It's graduation week in Cambridge and the Wire TV team joins the throngs of jubilant students as they celebrate in style all over town!

Plus!

Wire TV also brings you some great afternoon viewing, including the latest soaps from Downunder like Richmond Hill (weekdays at 3.00pm), starring Home and Away's Emily Symons, and Bagdad Cafe (Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4.00pm), which tells the story of the wacky inhabitants of a ramshackle diner including Whoopi Goldberg, Cleavon Little and Jean Stapleton.

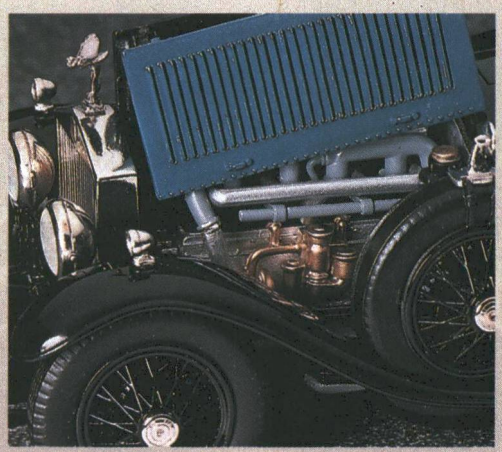
From the distinctive radiator shell with its Rolls-Royce emblem to the complete array of instrumentation and controls. The "Spirit of Ecstasy" bonnet ornament is plated with sterling silver and protectively coated.

Among the operating features, a flip-up windscreen, removable chauffeur's top, doors that open and close.

Open the bonnet and feast your eyes on the legendary Rolls-Royce six-cylinder engine. So fully detailed it even includes dual spark plugs for each individual cylinder.

To achieve such exceptional detailing, matching steel dies were made to create the more than 144 components required for a single model. The body panels are painted to match the original car's fashionable two-tone finish. The assembled model is then hand-polished to the same sparkling sheen that could be seen when the original Cabriolet went for an outing in 1929.



This is a production model distinguished by the incomparable quality synonymous with the name Rolls-Royce. Priced at only £95 payable in convenient monthly instalments.

1929 ROLLS-ROYCE PHANTOM I CABRIOLET DE VILLE

All sultry, all country, all Wright!

Country Music Television
Seven days a week, 24 hours a day

MICHELLE WRIGHT IS Canada's most popular Country music star. Well-known to CMT Europe viewers for her sultry performances of Take It Like A Man and He Would Be Sixteen, Michelle is now enjoying great success with her second album Now and Then.

As a teenager the smokey-voiced singer would tune in to Motown and R&B hits beaming out of nearby Detroit. But more than anything she was exposed to Country music, both on air and in the house.

'It really is the music I love.' says Michelle. 'Country music allows you to be happy, it allows you to be sad, it allows you to be real aggressive if you want to be, and then you can turn right around and do a flat-out ballad.'

'The other great thing about Country music today,' she adds keenly, 'is that it's very widely based, it's not the limited sound it used to be. We're dealing with a generation whose influences include Elvis, the Rolling Stones, the Beatles and the Eagles, as well as Merle Haggard and Tammy Wynette. And then there's the Motown Sound. If you listen to my approach to Country music you're gonna hear all of those influences.

'I think video is very important,' she continues. 'It's allowed people to see that we're not all slopping chow somewhere in front of a bunch of haybales, and that we're all very sophisticated people. I'm a farmer's daughter, but I'm college educated and very much in charge of what's going on here, particularly as a woman.' ■

Lari's Italian job

Country Music Television
Seven days a week, 24 hours a day

COUNTRY FANS HAVE learned to expect the unexpected from the innovative videos shown on CMT Europe.

Suzy Bogguss's Heartache video was shot in London, Reba McEntire and Vince Gill filmed The Heart Won't Lie at a naval base, while Lari White travelled to Rome to make her debut video What a Woman Wants. 'We wanted to go someplace that you hadn't seen before, someplace completely new,' recalls Lari. 'We didn't want to use any actors, just people that we met on the street. Going to a foreign country and getting through the language barrier made the whole situation much more interesting. It was right for us to go.

'I was so excited that CMT had moved over to Europe,' she enthuses. 'The toughest thing for a new artist is recognisability, and before videos it took many songs and many tours for an audience to associate the name with the face. Music video has made all the difference in the world.' You can see Lari White on CMT Europe performing What a Woman Wants as well as her new single Lead Me Not.

Other surprises on CMT include Huey Lewis in Reba McEntire's Is There Life Out There, and Kris Kristofferson in Lorrie Morgan's I Guess You Had to Be There. ■

Pepsi-Cola miniatures from Lledo. Buy four and your next one is on us.

Ever since the first bottle was delivered the name Pepsi-Cola has appeared on generations of commercial vehicles, from the curious horse drawn vans of the 1900's to the great custom-built vans of the 1930's.

A bygone age brought to life again in a new series from Lledo PLC.

Each die-cast model in this special collection is a miniature reproduction of an original vehicle and displays a classic Pepsi-Cola livery of the era.

Like all 'Days Gone' models even the cost is reminiscent of this great age. And to make Pepsi-Cola Collectables even more collectable we're offering 5 for the price of 4 for only £18.95 plus p&p. A miniature price for such superb Pepsi-Cola miniatures. Each model comes in a special Pepsi-Cola Collectables box.

Average length of models is 3½".

Here comes Pug

Pugwall

Tuesdays and Thursdays 5.00pm, Saturdays 1.00pm

Peter Unwin George Wall, better known as Pugwall, is a typical 1990s kid whose one great ambition in life is to form a rock band.

His adventures on TCC continue this month in Pugwall's Summer, as parents, school and life itself seem to conspire against his attempts to hit the big time with his band The Orange Organics. School camps, disasters, fights and tragic gigs mean little until finally the band wins a chance to compete for a trip to Japan and a recording contract.

Pugwall has made a list of goals for the summer which include making money, driving the school wardens wild, getting a suntan, working towards a record release and getting even with his little sister Marmaloid. ■

Mark joins Veed and Void

RatKan II

Weekdays at 7.00am and 3.30pm, weekends 8.30am

When popular TV personality Gareth Jones ends his spell as guest presenter aboard the Ratkan later this month the empty space he leaves behind will be filled by comic impersonator Mark Speight.

Mark shares the task of presenting with the two 'permanent' fixtures aboard the Ratkan, Void the android and his new female companion Veed.

Ratkan's daily stream of fun includes comedy, competitions, recipes and also cartoons like The Mysterious Cities of Gold, an action adventure series that follows the escapades of three children at the time of the Spanish Conquistadores search for the legendary City of Gold. ■

You Can't Do That on TV

Tuesdays 5.30pm

EVER WANTED to get even with a pompous, overbearing, stupid and irritating adult? Now's your chance to get all that anger out of your system by watching You Can't Do That On TV!, a show where roles are reversed and kids tell their parents what to do in a series of comic sketches poking fun at the trials and tribulations of adolescence. This is the show that turned green slime into a cult object, and any kid who comes up with the answer 'I don't know' gets a face full! ■

Introducing The Addams Family

Two group shots from the Addams Family album: the main one is dated 1991 while the top one is from the 1960s

The Addams Family

THE MOVIE CHANNEL

Sunday 13th 6.00pm

They are the altogether ookiest family of creepdom. Created in cartoon form by Charles Addams in 1932 and resurrected for the cult TV series of the 1960s, the Addamses were reincarnated in 1991 for this fabulously foul film by director Barry Sonnenfeld. It was so successful a sequel is currently being made called Addams Family Values.

First there is Gomez. Played by Raul Julia, he's the head of this hilariously horrid household and the man who put Mmm into macabre. Anjelica Huston, having played an assassin in Prizzi's Honor and a witch in The Witches, is perfectly cast as his beautifully bad wife Morticia. Gomez sums up her marvellously morbid charm thus: 'When Morticia attended a funeral, nobody looked at the corpse.'

The couple are proud of their perverted progeny, their devilish daughter Wednesday (played by rising actress Christina Ricci) and sadistic son Pugsley (10-year-old Jimmy Workman making his screen debut).

When the nasty nippers are not using an electric chair for a game of 'Is There a God', she collects headless dolls and he steals potentially life-saving road signs.

Judith Malina as Granny likes to rustle up the odd plate of live eel stew in the family cauldron.

Rounding off this picture of domestic bliss is Back to the Future star Christopher Lloyd as long-lost Uncle Fester – or is he?

The family is served by Carel Struycken as the hulking butler Lurch, while magician Christopher Hart lends a hand as Thing.

The performances, as is fitting to the subject, are deadpan. Morticia fondly says of Gomez: 'He could have had any woman he wanted – dead or alive.' ■

King of the road

The Fisher King

SKY MOVIES PLUS

Sunday 20th 8.00pm

ROBIN WILLIAMS and Jeff Bridges star in ex-Python Terry Gilliam's sweeping fantasy romance The Fisher King, a tale of love, friendship and redemption set in New York City.

Bridges stars as Jack Lucas, a one-time radio celebrity whose life and career take a nosedive after an off-hand comment prompts a tragedy. Williams plays Parry, a down-and-out who has found refuge in a new persona that helps him to live with the pain he suffered following the death of his wife. Together these two forge a friendship that helps them to survive modern-day life and come to terms with their personal pain. Parry finds love and Lucas redemption, as the pair set out on a grand mission to win the heart of Lydia, (Amanda Plummer), Parry's idea of the perfect woman. Also starring is Mercedes Ruehl, who won an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress for her exuberant performance as Lucas's long-suffering girlfriend Anne. Unlike his previous extravaganzas, director Gilliam only allowed himself one piece of self-indulgent excess, but what a piece! In the film's most memorable moment, New York City's Grand Central Station is transformed into a ballroom, with 1000 extras spinning across the floor in a bizarre but beautiful mass waltz. ■

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

AMERICAN GRAFFITI Sky Movies Gold Sunday 13th 8.00pm. Four young friends, played by then newcomers Richard Dreyfuss, Ron Howard, Charles Martin Smith and Paul Le Mat, celebrate their last hours together in their home-town before going their separate ways. During the course of one incredible night full of laughs, adventure and romance, each will have a moment of epiphany that will change the course of his life forever. The movie made Dreyfuss a major star, while director George Lucas went on to develop the big-budget Star Wars; watch out for Harrison Ford in a cameo as an arrogant hot-rodder. Candy Clark is good value as usual.

DEATH OF A SCHOOLBOY Sky Movies Plus Friday 4th 1.10am. A fascinating drama filmed in Austria that details the events leading up to and following the assassination of the Hapsburg Archduke Ferdinand of the Austro-Hungarian empire by 17-year-old Gavre Princip (Reuben Pillsbury). Disturbed by the power wielded by the monarchy in his home town of Sarajevo, Princip conspired with two schoolmates to kill the Archduke during a controversial ceremonial visit. The shooting, of course, sparked off World War I and led to Princip's imprisonment until his death in 1918. Directed by Peter Patzak and also starring Christopher Chaplin, Robert Munic and Sinolicka Trpkova, so marvellous as Azra in Emir Kusturica's award-winning epic The Time of the Gypsies.

ONLY THE LONELY Sky Movies Plus Sunday 27th 8.00pm A comedy, written and produced by John Hughes, starring John Candy as Danny Muldoon, a Chicago police officer who finds true love with Theresa Luna (Ally Sheedy), the shy, beautiful daughter of the local mortician. However, the burgeoning affair upsets Danny's outspoken mother rose (Maureen O'Hara), with whom he has lived all his life, and who fears that the new woman in her son's life will take him away from her. Directed by Chris Columbus and also starring (in his fifth screen pairing with her) Anthony Quinn as O'Hara's amorous next door neighbour.

THE TAKING OF BEVERLY HILLS The Movie Channel Monday 14th 10.00pm. A Die Hard-style action-adventure starring Ken Wahl as an arrogant star football player who finds himself stuck in Beverly Hills when a gang of audacious criminals attempts to rob the whole district by faking a chemical spill and evacuating the area. Teaming up with a corrupt cop (Matt Frewer), Wahl attempts to outmanoeuvre his cunning foe, indulging in a deadly game of cat-and-mouse on the streets and in the mansions of an abandoned Beverly Hills. Directed by Sidney J Furie.

THE WARRIORS Sky Movies Gold Sunday 27th 10.00pm Walter Hill's classic violent thriller, a modern-day version of The Odyssey set in the shadowy night-time world of New York street gangs. After being framed for the assassination of a leading gangland figure, The Warriors, a close-knit gang from Coney Island, must fight their way back across the city to get home, crossing the territory of numerous mortal enemies along the way. Starring Michael Beck, James Remar and David Patrick Kelly.

Jacob's Ladder

The Movie Channel Sunday 13th 6.00pm

TIM ROBBINS stars in the haunting and mysterious tale of Jacob's Ladder.

The stylish horror film tells the story of a Vietnam veteran (Robbins) who begins having terrifying demonic visions on the streets and subways of New York. Directed by Adrian Lyne, who is currently enjoying block-buster success with the star-studded Indecent Proposal, it explores the thin line between reality and hallucination, pushing back the boundaries of psychological terror as far as possible.

The screenplay was written by Bruce Joel Rubin of Ghost fame, who penned the terrifying story more than 10 years before it was finally produced. The script itself had been a hot Hollywood property for years, with numerous directors striving to bring it to the screen, and numerous publications naming it one of the best unproduced screenplays in town.

However, it was only when it fell to Lyne, who had creative carte blanche after the success of Fatal Attraction, that Rubin's vision finally made it to the silver screen. It also stars Elizabeth Pena (above). ■

Love of money

Other People's Money

SKY MOVIES PLUS

Sunday 13th 6.00pm

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY* is a scabrous 1980s comedy starring Danny DeVito, Penelope Ann Miller and Gregory Peck that serves as a cautionary tale for the 1990s.

This black comedy about a ruthless corporate raider (DeVito ) and the lawyer who tries to block his latest destructive plan (Miller) was directed by Norman Jewison (Moonstruck) and adapted from the hit off-Broadway play of the same name, an attraction that had a small Greenwich Village street almost permanently blocked with limousines and suited yuppies as they flocked to see their ilk cruelly captured in the savage stage satire. Danny DeVito is priceless as the ruthless, slimey and also charming fiscal cowboy Larry 'The Liquidator' Garfield. ■

Breaking the Norse code!

Norway's Erik Thorstvedt and England's Andy Sinton talk tactics as their countries prepare for this month's crucial World Cup qualifier.

Norway v England

SKY SPORTS Wednesday 2nd 7.00pm

BACK IN September, bookmakers were giving long odds on England and Norway claiming the two top spots from their World Cup qualifying group. But football's a funny old game.

Now that the group is bubbling to a climax and the finals are just over a year away, the unfancied Norwegians have become a major hurdle for our men in red, white and blue. Instead of being a bunch of pushovers, the no-nonsense Norsemen could push England out of the finals in America.

Spurs' giant goalkeeper Erik Thorstvedt is Norway's man between the posts and he kept England's pride and joy quiet in the first game last Autumn which finished 1-1.

'I was busy early on and Gazza was having a good time, so when David Platt beat me with the opening goal we thought our chances were really slim.'

Erik Thorstvedt

Andy Sinton playing for QPR against Leeds

But Erik didn't reckon on a totally unexpected equaliser from about 30 yards. Neither did England ace Andy Sinton, who was watching from the bench.

'We created lots of chances and should have won by five or six but the goals didn't come,' recalls the man who will be a key to Graham Taylor's summer of World Cup games. Left-footed Andy has stood in for skipper Stuart Pearce at left back as well as playing a normal midfield role and now he relishes the opportunities to play for his country. 'That 1-1 draw against Norway was like a victory for them. But we have a good spirit and understanding now. Graham Taylor has a set pattern and it gives us confidence.'

> 'Graham Taylor has a set pattern and it gives us confidence,' says Sinton

And confidence is something Erik and his teammates suddenly have plenty of. 'We normally start these qualification groups by losing and stumbling on from there. Our 10-goal victory over San Marino and the win against Holland changed all that.'

But England is still the biggest challenge. 'The fast and furious pace of the English game makes this the toughest one. It's the kind of game we have been watching on TV in Norway for years, so we know all about how to play it – now we need to understand how to beat it.'

Whatever the outcome of Norway v England this month, there is plenty of respect between the players. 'I spoke to Gazza recently – he calls Spurs when he comes back to the UK – and he's looking forward to playing us again,' says Erik. 'If I could choose then it would be us and England for the finals – but we'll wait and see.'

And the Sinton summary? 'We're confident of qualifying, but we don't really care who comes with us.' There'll be a few million viewers biting millions of finger nails on the night who hope that Andy has got it right.

SKY SPORTS

HORSE-RACING lovers have long wondered why Sky Sports has never shown their favourite sport.

Well, now the channel does. It has become the first British television station to broadcast evening horse racing.

Sky Sports is showing two live meetings an evening, twice a week. The Sky Sports Super Seven will, as its name suggests, be a programme of seven races, one every 15 minutes during the two-hour broadcast.

The race coverage started at the end of May and has already featured Uttoxeter and Perth. During the first six weeks of this new venture, Sky Sports will visit most British race courses.

David Hill, head of sport at Sky, said: 'Televised evening racing, or twilight meetings, will bring a whole new concept to sports programming. It will be different and exciting.'

● EUROSPORT viewers can now be armchair punters as well as armchair supporters.

Viewers from around Europe can add extra excitement to watching events on the channel by having a bet on the outcome from the comfort of home. The London-based bookmaker SSP offers odds on all major events which Eurosport is broadcasting.

The odds are displayed on 'Eurotext' page 700.

A direct link between SSP in London and the Eurotext service is constantly updating the odds. Viewers who want to have a bet can do so with a simple phone call.

Catlow

BRAVO

Friday 11th 8.00pm

DESCRIBED BY SOME as 'basic stodge', Sam Wanamaker's third shot at directing is actually an unpretentious and fast-moving comedy western based on the novel by Louis L'Amour.

Shot in Spain in 1971, it boasts genial performances from Yul Brynner and Richard Crenna respectively as a roguish post-Civil War outlaw and an upright sheriff who nevertheless remain buddies while trying to do each other down.

Also featuring in Brynner's light-hearted attempts to recover his hidden cache of $2million in stolen gold are Leonard Nimoy, Israeli actress Daliah Lavi as a wildcat female, and sometime silent actress Bessie Love, not to mention hordes of Mexican soldiers and assorted bands of Indians.

Yul Brynner (above) and Leonard Nimoy

The music was composed by jazz pianist Roy Budd, who also wrote the score for Soldier Blue (also shot in Spain) the year before, and went on to write themes for several other movies of the 1970s. ■

Edgar Wallace

Edgar Wallace

SLOT: Bravo: Wednesdays 7.00pm

THE BOOKS and short stories of Edgar Wallace have been made into at least 179 international movies, making him the world's most filmed author.

The first movie based on one of his works was The Man Who Bought London (1916). Later adaptations included The Terror, The Case of the Frightened Lady, The Crimson Circle, Sanders of the River, The Squeaker, Kate Plus Ten, The Four Just Men and The Mind of Mr Reeder.

But British audiences remember him for the 47 features made at Jack Greenwood's production unit at London's Merton Park studios between 1960 and 1963.

Prefaced by a sinister bust of the author that revolved eerily to the strains of The Shadows' Man of Mystery, the series was most popular on TV, boasting guest appearances from Patrick Allen, Harry H Corbett, Michael Gough, Gerald Harper, Bernard Lee, Jean Marsh, Warren Mitchell and John Thaw among others.

Despite royalties from his prodigious literary output, his film rights (more than 50 of the films were made during his lifetime) and fees for scriptwriting, directing and chairing the board of British Lion, Edgar Wallace died owing $315,000. ■

BETTE DAVIS

Born: Ruth Elizabeth Davis on 5 April 1908 in Lowell, Massachusetts

Career: Decided on an acting career at high school, was fired by director George Cukor on her first engagement and failed an MGM screen test before being signed by Universal in 1930.

She won her first Oscar in 1935 for Dangerous and by the 1940s was Hollywood's box-office Queen, attracting female audiences with her liberated screen image of a woman coping in a man's world.

By the late 1950s she was advertising for roles in the press, but the 1960s saw a return in movies like Whatever Happened to Baby Jane? She continued to appear in film and TV roles, giving her last screen performance in The Whales of August (1987). ■

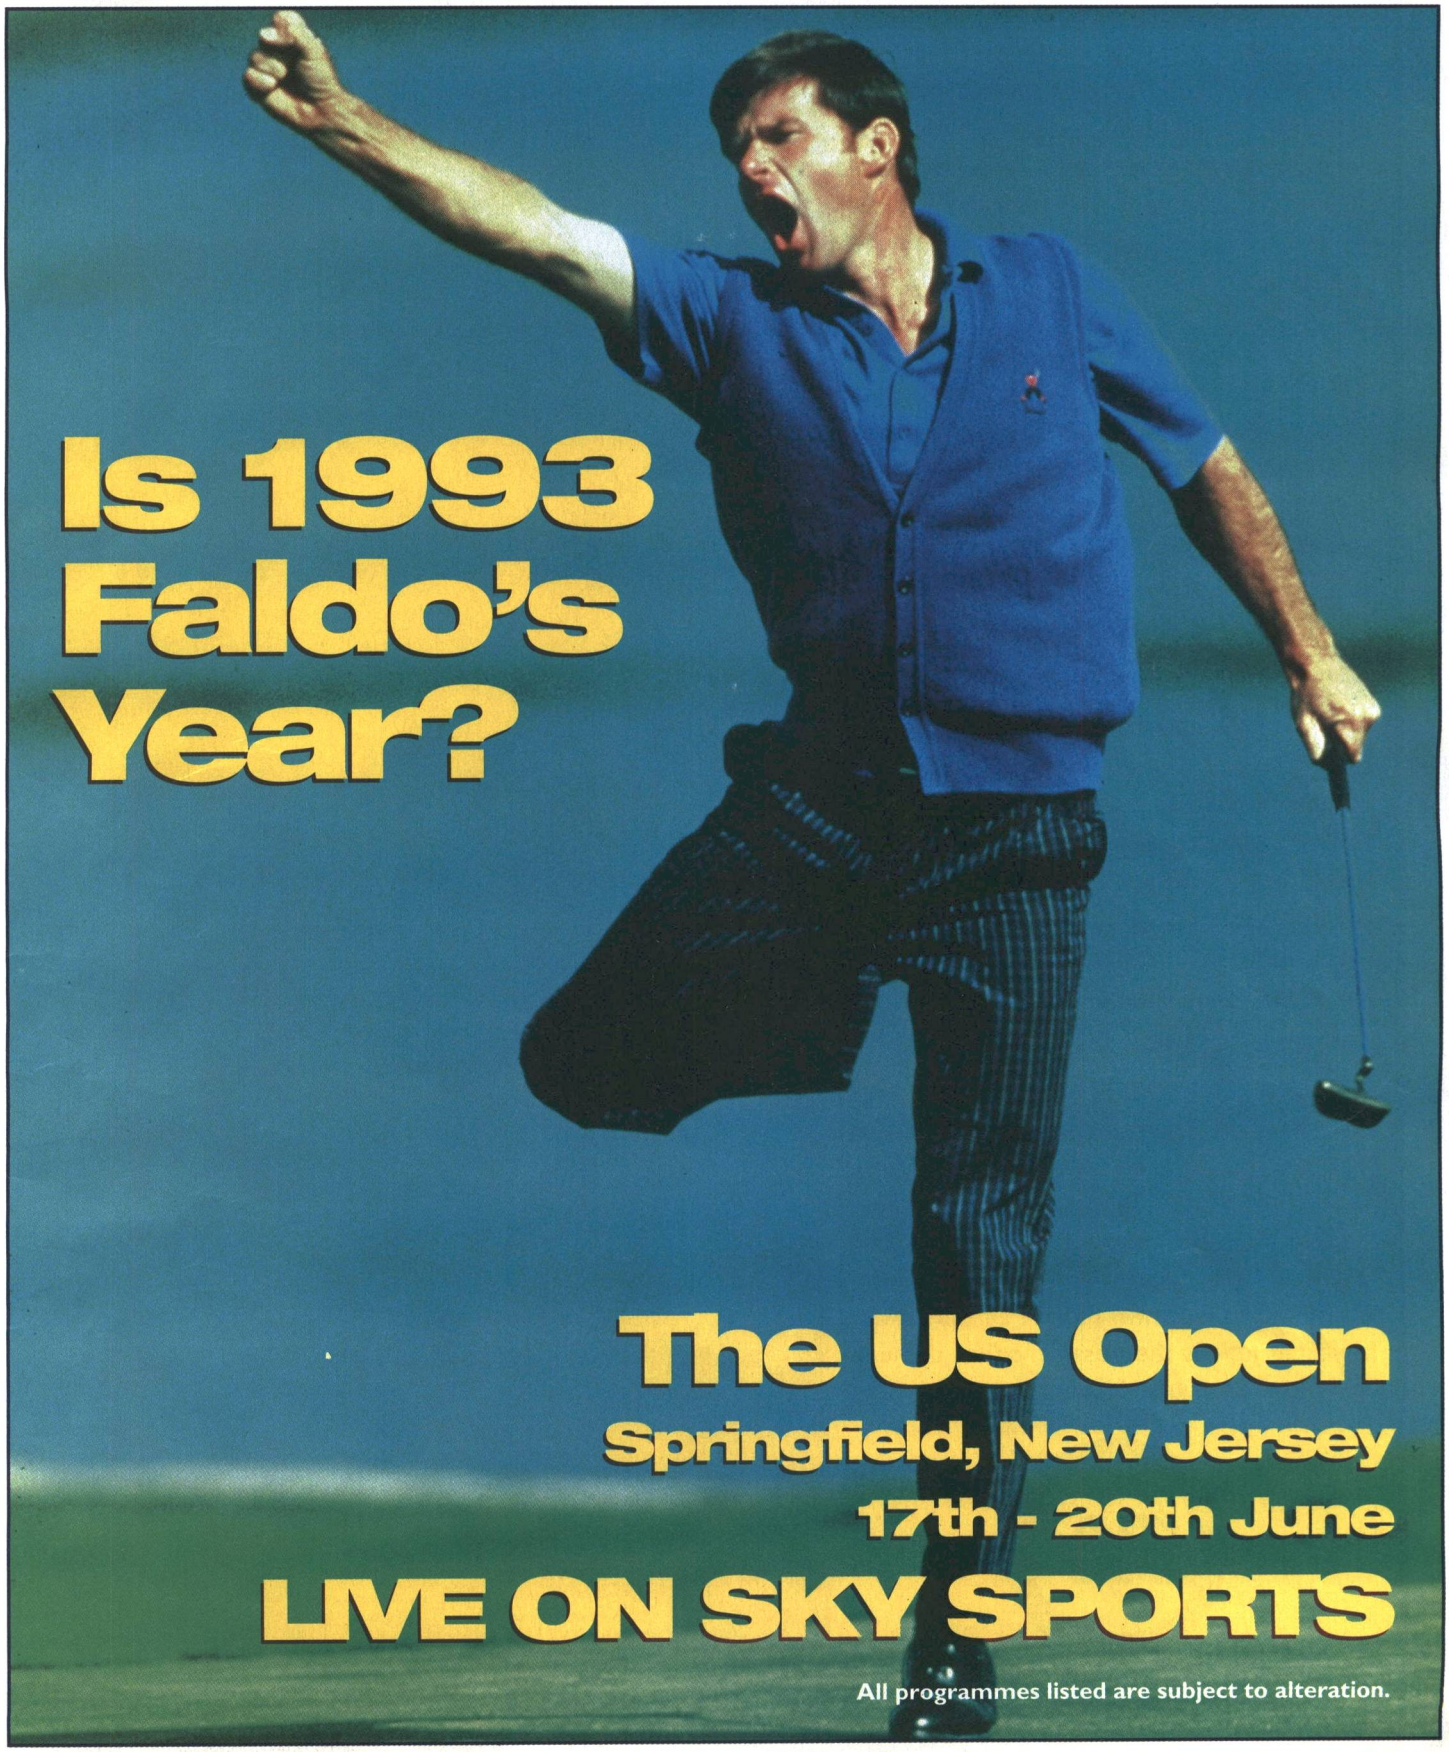
THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS ON SKY JUNE 1993



All programmes listed are subject to alteration.

THERE'S a blockbuster movie showing every day throughout June on SKY's three movie channels.

Robin Williams stars in the British Television premiere of The Fisher King on SKY MOVIES PLUS. It's a fantasy romance set in New York, where Williams plays Parry, a philosophical down-and-out trying to win the heart of Lydia (Amanda Plummer). The film also stars Jeff Bridges as the friend who helps him 'get the girl'.

Jacob's Ladder is a terrifying thriller about a Vietnam veteran (Tim Robbins) who begins to have horrific visions on the streets of New York. It explores the thin line between hallucination and reality and the tension becomes almost unbearable as the story reaches its climax.

The first of two new comedies playing in June is Other People's Money, starring Danny DeVito, Penelope Ann Miller and Gregory Peck. It's a story of greed and lust, where Miller plays a tough-as-nails lawyer attempting to prevent corporate take-over merchant (DeVito) in his latest plans. Only the Lonely is a romantic comedy about a Chicago police officer (John Candy) who falls in love, much to the dismay of his domineering mother.

SKY MOVIES GOLD is hosting a season of Jack Nicholson films during June. Among the four '70's films showing is the highly acclaimed drama, Five Easy Pieces. The new Sunday evening "Modern Classics" slot will include the first showing of nostalgic comedy American Graffiti, with the then unknown Richard Dreyfuss. Also playing in June is the classic modern comedy Tootsie starring Dustin Hoffman.

THERE are ten different sports live on SKY SPORTS during June with guaranteed live action on 24 days of the month.

Sky Sports' tennis coverage takes a break from the ATP Championship Series as players warm up for Wimbledon. Sky Sports has live coverage of three major British tournaments including the men's and women's tournaments from Beckenham, the men's Stella Artois from Queen's club, and the men's Manchester Open.

Sky Sports' live golf coverage comes from both Europe and the USA with the Jersey Open and French Open from the European PGA Tour and The Memorial Tournament, The Buick Classic and Seniors Championship from the US PGA Tour.

There is also live coverage of all four days of the US Open from Springfield, New Jersey. Tom Kite claimed last year's $275,000 winner's cheque with Britain's Nick Faldo finishing fourth. It is one title that has eluded Faldo and one that he is desperate to win. Will 1993 be his year?

Current Rugby League world champions, Australia, face stern opposition when they meet New Zealand in the Rugby League Test Series. Live coverage of the first two matches is from New Zealand with the third Test from Australia.

The other main event on the June sporting agenda is the Norway vs England World Cup tie and Sky Sports will show the whole match exclusively live from Oslo. With the World Cup just 12 months away and only three qualifying matches left, England will be determined to earn at least one point in Oslo.

COMING to SKY ONE this June is the drama series North and South, the screen adaptation of John Jakes' epic best-selling novels.

Some of Hollywood's biggest names star in this 12-part drama, set around the time of the Civil War. Patrick Swayze heads the cast, as Orry Main, a Southerner from an aristocratic plantation family in South Carolina who befriends George Hazard (James Read), a Northerner.

An intriguing story of love, friendship and betrayal against a backdrop of impending civil war, the plot takes Orry and George through military training at West Point, following the fated love story between Orry and the beautiful Madeline Fabray (Lesley-Anne Down). The all-star cast includes Elizabeth Taylor, Jean Simmons, Robert Mitchum, Gene Kelly and Morgan Fairchild.

Another new drama series beginning this June is Eddie Dodd, which follows the life of a defence attorney whose controversial courtroom battles are the only hope for those who appear guilty beyond reprieve.

Harem: The Loss of Innocence is a two-part drama set at the turn of the century when the powerful Ottoman Empire, which stretched across the Arabian and Asian sub-continents, began to crumble. An American woman en route to meet her fiancé is abducted by a rebel to the Sultan's empire and her life is changed beyond recognition.

The Flash is an action adventure series based on the comic character of the same name. Barry Allen (John Wesley Shipp) is a police chemist struck by lightning. Affected by the chemical spill, he becomes the fastest human on earth.

Top Choice

FILMS

Awakenings
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
It's not the first time that you might have seen this film, but Robin Williams as the inspired neurologist and Robert De Niro as the human statue who returns to life are simply captivating. Director Penny Marshall is at her best in this kind of tear-jerker and if you want that warm kind of feeling from a film which touches the heart, then watch this with a large box of tissues.

GENERAL

This Day In History
Wire TV 6.00pm
My first chance to feature this new cable channel, so they get pride of place on the first of the month. This is their daily six o'clock show which dips into the deep pool of nostalgia and aims to lock you in for an evening of viewing. It's followed by an Australian soap and two American comedies and is worth a Tuesday evening in June, surely?

SPORT

Sports Wire
Wire TV 8.00pm
It's the kind of show that sports fans love - a bit of this, a bit of that and plenty of action and chat. News and features in abundance for a whole 75 minutes - the new channel loves its sports fans, so you sports fans should love this channel.

FILMS

True Identity
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
Now I remember Lenny Henry as a gangly youth on New Faces who was all mouth and impressions, but here he's a struggling actor who has to pose as a white man. Lenny is turning into an all-round entertainer, the English Eddie Murphy and attracts the camera like a real star.

GENERAL

Floyd on Oz
Bravo 1.00pm
Love him or hate him, at least you can get drunk with him. Foppish Floyd (Keith to his chums) begins his latest cooking series from Australia in super Sydney. Prawns on the barbie is a gimme, but Floyd's other gourmet delights rock oyster sausages and blue blurters (goodness knows what they taste like). Watch this with knife, fork and serviette.

SPORT

Football, England vs Norway
Sky Sports 6.00pm
Our boys against those nasty Nordics who drew 1-1 at Wembley and believe they could make the World Cup finals next year in America at the expense of Taylor's heroes! So much balderdash! It'll be 4-0 to England and no repeat of that famous Norwegian commentator who added Churchill, Princess Diana and Maggie Thatcher to the list of unfortunates who were to blame for Norway's last World Cup defeat of England.

Choice

FILMS

976-EVIL II
Sky Movies Plus 10.00pm
Now I don't usually recommend such movies, but it's Thursday and it's probably been a hot day there are plenty of beers in the fridge. So why not? It's horror, there's murder, plus Brigitte Nielsen and a serial killer - not much more to say except you should lie back and watch this first showing. It's questionable you'll watch it again.

GENERAL

Star Trek: The New Generation
Sky One 10.30pm
It's no fun living with a Trekkie. Your day can be jolly and fun, nothing sinister or troublesome is on the horizon and then, every weekday night at 10.25 precisely, a nervous twitch comes over your partner and the remote control is sought out. Can't miss our nightly fix of the soothing tones of Captain Jean-Luc Picard emanating from the corner of the room, now can we? And not a single "Beam me up, Scotty".

SPORT

Beckenham Tennis
Sky Sports 1.00pm
Both men's and women's matches live from the Direct Line Insurance tournament which offers Wimbledon hopefuls some early grass court practise beating our cannon fodder home players among others. The finals are live at the weekend.

Today's choice

FILMS

Easter Parade
Bravo 9.40pm
The images of Judy Garland and Fred Astaire singing "A Couple of Swells" is one of Hollywood's everlasting images. It might not be Easter, but that's no reason not to watch this classic song 'n' dance movie. Garland is the unknown star who Astaire brings to fame and the long-legged Ann Miller is the ex-partner who has revenge reeked on her. "Stepping Out With My Baby" is another wonderful highlight of a film that makes us all feel young again - even if we're young already!

GENERAL

Film Breaks
Bravo 6.50pm
One of those little golden nuggets for your viewing evening as we spend 10 minutes studying the works of a member of the Hollywood hierarchy of yesteryear. Today it is Bela Lugosi who looked frightening in real life let alone with make up.

SPORT

So You Want To Play Golf
The Learning Channel 1.00pm
Hosted by the urbane Peter Alliss, this series began last month and continues each Friday at this time. Today the topic is bunkers with Wally Armstrong as your teacher.

FILMS

Jacob's Ladder
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
A really underrated film by British director Adrian Lyne. It stars Tim (Bob Roberts) Robbins as a Vietnam vet whose grisly flashbacks could be real or just hallucinations. It's a first showing and this film gives a much-needed alternative slant to the Vietnam story and was written by the man who penned the film Ghost, so how much more persuading do you need? Just get on with it and enjoy!

GENERAL

Sky News UFO Special
Sky One 8.00pm
From the Sky News team on Sky One comes an attempt to unravel what the UFOlogists have been saying over the last 40-odd years. Now these guys maintain that over 2,500 craft have landed from outer space already. If it was true, you would think that one of these aliens would have made a guest appearance on Coronation Street by now. Or maybe they have already - Sky News tells all.

SPORT

1993 Milk Race
Sky Sports 1.00pm
Britain's premier cycling event has grown in stature along with the sport over recent years. The race started on May 30, but this is the first live action as the bikers travel from Stratford to Leicester faster than you or I could probably go by train.

LATE NIGHT

12.00 IN CONCERT

Television Choice

FILMS

Homicide
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
Another premiere sees this arthouse hit doing a late-night job for the discerning audience. Joe Mantegna stars as a Jewish cop who thinks he's got a handle on the crimes going down in Baltimore, but he finds himself one missed rendezvous away from disaster. David Mamet is the exceptional writer/director of this multi-layered film. You have to be awake to watch this one, so stock up on the coffee.

GENERAL

Unplugged with Annie Lennox
MTV 5.00pm
It might only be half an hour in her presence, but that's enough for me. Aberdeen's most famous daughter gives a short acoustic performance which was taped at the Montreux Jazz Festival in July last year. The soaring tones of her voice melts hearts and no one lives her songs the way our Annie does. Such torment, such emotion, such a must-watch-and-tape opportunity.

SPORT

French Open Tennis
Eurosport 1.30pm
The men's final from Roland Garros is certain to give you better watching value for money than Wimbledon. The rallies are longer, the crowd is chicer and there's a good chance Andre Agassi will be there.

FILMS

Mister Ten Per Cent
Bravo 5.30pm
Hello, my darlin's! Who else but the ultimate helpless hero Charlie Drake who stars in a 1967 light comedy about a playwright who is supposed to come up with a flop, but instead scores a hit. Now if you thought Mel Brooks did it better in* The Producers, *don't be put off as the inimitable Charlie chuckles his way through a gem.

GENERAL

Bodystyles
The Discovery Channel 11.30pm
If you have the perfect body (like I do, of course) then turn to something else. However, if skin is too light, your eyebrows too thick and your legs stuffed with cellulite then tune in. Tatooing, body painting and plastic surgery are just the start of it. But pig fat on our eyelashes?

Highlights

FILMS

The Poseidon Adventure
Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
A disastrous classic if you know what I mean. A movie which may have halted sales of cruises, but didn't stop the fabulous career of Gene Hackman who stars as the do-goody priest trying to save his flock in more ways than one. Memorable for the special Oscar-winning effects and Shelley Winters in her underwear.

GENERAL

World Of Herbs
The Learning Channel
1.00pm
Hang on! I thought this was the children's show called The Herbs with Dill the dog and Bayleaf the gardener. No? Oh well, Lesley Bremness will probably cultivate my interest in the real things as she shows us what to do with all that funny-coloured stuff in the strange-shaped bottles. And at the end of the show she sings the Dill the Dog song (not really!).

SPORT

The Great Camel Race
The Discovery Channel 11.00pm
Sorry we missed the start last Tuesday, but catching up with the camels should be easy. There are 69 in this race (plus jockeys) lolloping through 3,000 kilometres of the Australian outback in 100 degree temperatures. Every Tuesday we get an update on the race for the £50,000 prize money. Can we really get excited about camels? Maybe it's the heat...

Tuesday continues overleaf...

FILMS

The Four Musketeers
Bravo 12 midnight
OK, so it was the sequel (to the Three Musketeers, would you believe?), but there is so much obvious fun being had by Oliver Reed, Raquel Welch and Richard Chamberlain that it's a pleasure to watch the romps, the rogues and the rowdy fighting. There's also a few sexual jokettes to liven things up late at night plus Christoper Lee to hiss at. What more do you want?

GENERAL

A Change For The Better
The Learning Channel 12 midday
Daytime TV seems to generate endless programmes about "women's problems". Dr Jean Coope interviews hundreds of women about menopause and offers to destroy some myths.

SPORT

IAAF Athletics
Eurosport 7.30pm
This meeting from Rome is another on the long running European circus that usually means some of the best Americans showing their talents alongside the best of Europe.

Wednesday continues overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Today's choice

FILMS

Four For Texas
Sky Movies Gold
6.00pm
It's the Dean and Frank Show. The last play of this Western comedy which is supposed to be about stagecoach robbers who double-cross each other then set up opposing saloons. It's really a simple excuse to get two of Hollywood's biggest stars of the 1960s together on the same screen. Seemed like a good idea then and it don't seem so bad now.

GENERAL

Eddie Dodd
Sky One 8.00pm
The law is no longer an ass. The law is sex, truth, morality and simply a question of who can make the best tear-jerking trial-winning summation. Therefore this new seven-part series starring Treat Williams in the title role should hit the LA Law fans and more besides. So if you don't like the show, sue me.

SPORT

Buick Classic Golf
Sky Sports 9.00pm
The first day of the US PGA Tour event from New York. South Africa's David Frost is the defending champion. The action is live for all four days of the tournament.

FILMS

Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves
The Movie Channel 8.00pm
It's one of those films you HAVE to watch sometime, so why not now when there's nothing better on? Kevin Costner puts 1990s pace into the age-old story of robbing the rich to give to the poor. There are no actual car chases, but it sure feels like there were some when you sit back afterwards. Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio looks divine and you have to hand it to Hollywood for re-writing the story so Morgan Freeman makes such a strong appearance. Listen out for some real old English swear words, too. Oh, and Bryan Adams sings THAT song.

GENERAL

Colin's Sandwich
UK Gold 10.30pm
Mel Smith's first attempt at a sit-com is not all bad even on a second showing. The traumas of the writer! Mel gets a whiff of fame with the publication of his first story. Not that it would affect the ego of mild-mannered fellow such as himself.

SPORT

Canadian Grand Prix
Eurosport 6.00pm
It may only be practice, but the men who drive these rockets on four wheels can push these babies to unbelievable limits for that one precious lap that will allow them a good grid position. For an hour, the tension is palpable.

Choice

FILMS

Harvey
Sky Movies Gold
4.00pm
Does anybody out there still own up to an imaginary friend? Well, James Stewart persuades us that his six-foot tall rabbit chum Harvey is his constant companion in this 1950 comedy. Now is Harv real or a vision of Stewart's drunken character? What fun we have finding out. Besides with Stewart's character going by the name of Elwood P Dowd, how could you not sympathise with him either way?

GENERAL

MTV Movie Awards 93 Premiere
MTV 7.00pm
Not like any other awards this year and guaranteed Clint-free. Every awards has a Best Movie category, but only MTV can have Most Desirable Female, Best Kiss, Best Villain and Best Action Sequence. OK, so more people watch the Oscars, but this is funnier, funkier and fabulously glitzy and goofy. Oh, and Prince is performing, too.

SPORT

1993 Milk Race
Sky Sports 1.00pm
The final sprint to the Milk Race title on the 14th and final day, a circuit race around Manchester. Again it's alive action for a Saturday afternoon.

Saturday continues overleaf...

FILMS

The Addams Family
The Movie Channel
6.00pm
Sure, there are better movies to watch, but somehow the fascinatingly horrid Addams bunch beg to be watched. They are definitely creepy and kooky and director Barry (Misery) Sonnenfeld brings to work every special effect he can think of to endorse the craziness. Anjelica Houston outperforms the rest as Morticia cutting the heads off roses and slinking around like the ultimate vamp. No story, just a series of one-liners.

GENERAL

Harem: The Loss of Innocence
Sky One 8.00pm
Certainly the best show this month for locations - England, Greece, Constantinople and Syria. Nancy Travis is the beautiful (aren't they all) American heiress who sets off to marry the boring bloke, but bumps into the interesting alternative while on the road to Damascus. Not much more biblical imagery, but at least this show has an ending and it comes tomorrow night.

SPORT

Centenary Test Cricket Challenge
Sky Sports 10.00am
All day live coverage of this nostalgic event from Trent Bridge, Nottingham, which commemorate's the 1977 Centenary Test in Australia. Derek Randall who scored a magnificent century in the first game will take on the likes of Greg Chappel and Rodney Marsh for old time's sake.

Sunday continues overleaf . . .

FILMS

Other People's Money
Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm
Danny DeVito might be challenged in the height stakes, but there's no one to touch him for vicious comedy and here he hits the mark again. Little Dan fights over a communications company with pretty Penelope Ann Miller. Honour is at stake for our small schemer who will stop at nothing (or almost nothing) to force the company to sell its assets. Your own assets will shake with laughter at some of the conniving which goes on. Now don't try this at home.

GENERAL

Man At The Top
Bravo 9.40pm
A much-forgotten classic series of the early seventies sees Kenneth Haigh as the man of the title. This week his character (Joe Lampton) learns how a pharmaceutical exec discovers he is marketing an unsafe drug.

SPORT

Thais choice

FILMS

Ramblin Rose
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
This film kinda slipped through the fingers of many cinema-goers, so don't let it happen again. Laura Dern gives a touching performance as a 19-year old girl whose promiscuous ways don't sit kindly with them thar Southern folks. Plenty of soft focus stuff as you feel the high temperature and high passion that the deep South of the US of A does so well.

GENERAL

Dante
Super Channel
6.30pm
Howard Duff is Dante, the reformed gambler and bank robber who goes straight. Straight into more trouble, it seems as this weekly series showcases his own nightclub and the criminal underworld types who begin the hang out there.

SPORT

Kickboxing '93
Sky Sports 5.00pm
Start of a new series of this vicious-but-skilful sport which is stunningly performed by Thais and fellow Asians, but always looks so pedestrian when involving Europeans.

FILMS

Sharky's Machine
Sky Movies Gold
10.00pm
The final film in a three-movie Burt Reynolds evening on The Movie Channel. I like Burt in some of his comedies (there's two scheduled beforehand) but he does action so well and his "syrup" never moves. In this one he's an undercover cop at war with the underworld and protecting high class hooker Rachel Ward. Plus, Burt directed the whole thing as well. Let's hear it for Burt...

GENERAL

Big Deal
UK Gold 9.00pm
I remember watching this the first time around and ripping my security blanket in half every week as the hapless gambler Robbie (Ray Brooks) unveiled his amazing talent for doing the wrong thing at the wrong time with the wrong people. However, you'd be right to at least share the pain with me again as he wagers his life and loves away - almost.

SPORT

Copa America Football
Eurosport 10.00pm
The first day of this fascinating all-live tournament involving the Brazils and Argentinas etc which goes on for virtually the whole month. The final is on the 27th, tonight it's Uraguay vs new entrants USA.

Choice

FILMS

Tootsie
Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
This is such a great movie that it's hard to pick out the best scene let alone the best one-liner. Dustin Hoffman as the out-of-work actor who turns himself into an actress and becomes a superstar. The mix-ups are many and Bill Murray as the space-out best friend is as good as anyone. The film was multi-Oscared and Jessica Lange, as the woman in love with a man who's a woman, deserved hers as much as anyone for being able to understand the script!

GENERAL

Talkin' Jazz
Super Channel
10.00pm
Suddenly fashionable again, jazz gets a weekly one-hour slot here with CD, book and video reviews plus interviews and archive film of some of the greats. Take it away, daddyo.

SPORT

US Open Golf
Sky Sports 10.00pm
The one major championship that always seems to stay in the USA. There is live coverage of all four days (with the final on Sunday) and defending champion Tom Kite is as good a bet as any although the Baltusrol course in New Jersey will offer a chance to the Europeans.

Thursday continues overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

The Battle of the Sexes
Bravo 8.00pm
The first in a Robert Morley double bill sees Mr M oversee a battle between the incomparable Peter Sellers as a chief accountant and Constance Cummings as the American efficiency expert he plans to murder. The kind of comfortable comedy you can cool down in front of after a tough week at the office. Director Charles Crichton did this in 1960 and nearly thirty years later did A Fish Called Wanda. Now not many people know that.

GENERAL

The CMT Europe Countdown Show Country Music Television 8.00pm
The biggest hits on the country music scene are aired three times a week, starting tonight. Dontcha just lurve them thar names of the stars - Travis Tritt and Dwight Yoakam come to mind. But, hey, don't knock it because the best of anything is worth hearing and here you've got the best alright.

SPORT

Horse Racing
Sky Sports 6.30am
A real innovation and the first ever live evening horse racing on British television. This week from Goodwood and Newmarket comes another chance to lose your beer money from the comfort of your armchair.

FILMS

Revenge
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
There's something about this movie which makes me watch it, but for the life of me I don't know what it is. Kevin Costner is a Vietnam vet who accepts an invite to Anthony Quinn's magnificent home and promptly falls for his young wife Madeline Stowe. You can bet Anthony isn't best pleased and there are recriminations all round before the rather depressing end. Now I know - I keep expecting a different ending. Guess I'll be depressed again.

GENERAL

Tina Turner Weekend
MTV 7.00am, 1.00pm and 12 midnight
She rocks it, she socks it. She's the mother of all movers and there ain't no denyin' it, brothers and sisters. If you simply want the best in artistic performance, then turn to Tina. She's launching a new record as a movie about her life is set for release. It took Tina Turner so long to really make it that it would be a shame not to enjoy her while we can.

SPORT

Manchester Open Tennis
Sky Sports 1.00pm
The final live of the Direct Line Insurance Manchester Open which has been building up all week to today's climax.

Choice

FILMS

The Fisher King
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
Terry Gilliam (director) plus Robin Williams (star) is a cocktail for breaking new comic ground. So it is. Bewildered Jeff Bridges holds the story together as a wacked-out DJ whose life is saved by Williams as the wacked-out hobo. Bridges tries to help Williams, but it's really the other way around - in fact, nothing is quite what it seems after you've watched this. Don't be put off.

GENERAL

The Last Frontier
Sky One 8.00pm
Linda Evans AD (After Dynasty) is the courageous woman spending the next four hours (two more tomorrow) marrying an Aussie and then wondering what to do when the man himself dies in a plane crash. No jewellery to jangle in this show, she helps herself to a bit more Aussie lifestyle, another man and supposed happiness. Not if the evil Jason Robards can steal a few scenes and her ranch!

SPORT

Le Man 24 Hour Race
Eurosport 8.00am, 11.00am and 1.00pm
The final 12 hours of the classic long distance race around the famous French circuit. The race has lost some of its pull as the car classifications change, but the tradition is still there.

Sunday continues overleaf...

Choice

FILMS

Body Parts
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
Jeff (The Lawnmower Man) Fahey stars in a psychological horror-thriller about a re-grafted arm with a mind of its own. No, it's not a comedy. The arm turns into a self-possessed army and attacks people for no reason. Look, this is NOT funny. Anyway, so Jeff discovers his new arm used to belong to a serial killer ... OK, so maybe we've discovered a new subliminal level for the plot that no one else thought existed?

GENERAL

The Dolphin Phenomenon
The Discovery Channel 8.00pm
Aaaaah!!! Yes, those aquatic acrobats with minds like Einstein are bewitching us again with their antics with an underwater camera crew who spent three months filming everything from a birth to a dolphin trip to the beach. They are so intelligent that one day we'll just give the dolphins the cameras and let them get on with it.

SPORT

Rugby Union Super 10 Championships
Sky Sports 9.00pm
The start of the big southern hemisphere championship with teams like New South Wales, Queensland, Auckland and Natal battling out in the scums and line-outs.

Choice

FILMS

Joseph Andrews
Sky Movies Plus
1.10am
A little late for a Tuesday movie, but there's plenty of reasons to stay up. Director Tony Richardson had already hit the heights with Tom Jones in 1963, so another Henry Fielding novel adaptation was an obvious challenge. Bawdy and with brilliant cameo acting from the likes of Michael Hordern, Beryl Reid and Jim Dale. Ann-Margaret provides the glamour.

GENERAL

When The Boat Comes In
UK Gold 6.30pm
The damned boat never does seem to come in, but James Bolam and company have plenty of drama to keep them busy while they wait in this bleak series of life in the North East way back when

SPORT

Copa America Football
Eurosport 11.30pm
This soccer tournament is the kind that you want to dip in and out of. Tonight it's Paraguay against Peru live.

FILMS

Postcards From The Edge
The Movie Channel 10.00pm
So much has been written about this movie (Carrie Fisher of Star Wars fame adapted her own best-selling semi-autobiography) that Meryl Streep as the pressurised Hollywood daughter and Shirley MacLaine as the preposterously pushy mom have only to perform a walk-through to give us the plot. There's more to it than that, but you have to look hard. Mike (The Graduate) Nichols gives it a good directorial send-off.

GENERAL

Games World
Sky One 6.00pm
For those of us who can barely use a word processor, this five-nights-a-week journey to computer game heaven has many disciples. Each night of the week has a theme and Wednesday should be Try Your Luck with live interactive competition.

SPORT

European Basketball Championship
Eurosport 6.00pm
This tournament started live yesterday and will continue until the final on the 28th. This evening the game features Germany.

FILMS

The Fortune
Sky Movies Gold 10.00pm
It must be Mike Nichols' benefit week - we feature his second film in two days. This one sees small-time crooks Warren Beatty and Jack Nicholson bumble their way out of the fortune of the title. Set in Los Angeles in the 1920s, there are some great costumes and sets even if you aren't knocked out by the comedy.

GENERAL

'Allo 'Allo
UK Gold 7.30pm
Niver mond wat you thought of dis show in ze pist, it mecks ze pipple liff lood and lung, so witch it for a chunge. Yes, it's back to war-torn France and Rene's battles to get those darned British airmen back home and away from his crazy cafe and the woeful list of cardboard comic characters. I vill write zis only once.

FILMS

Presumed Innocent
Sky Movies Plus
10.00pm
Last play for the best-selling Scott Turow novel which converts so well to film thanks to Alan J Pakula's directorial skills and Harrison Ford's typically give-nothing-away performance. Beautiful Greta Scaachi does give something away and suffers for it. A tight script and lots of plot-layering makes this a masterpiece murder mystery.

GENERAL

Dallas
UK Gold 3.00pm
It's that dastardly Ewing family doing the dirty all over the Lone Star state. This afternoon's episode is another memorable trip to the Oil Barons' Ball - not an occasion to miss, especially for a feast of plot unravelling. The Barneses get a frosty encounter, there's Mickey's death to find out about and Ray gets the jury's verdict. Oh, and all the fun of the ball.

SPORT

Rugby League, New Zealand vs Australia
Sky Sports 6.30am
It's a little early for such fierce action for us wimps, yet what a way to start the day - Meninga and Ettinghausen vs Reeche and Freeman.

FILMS

The People Under The Stairs
The Movie Channel 10.00pm
Oh well, it's Sunday tomorrow and we can all hide under the bed covers for a day to recover from the shock of the spine chiller about how a normal everyday American family copes with the goings-on in their ramshackle home. If you're still watching with your eyes open after 20 minutes then you're not enjoying yourself.

GENERAL

MTV Unplugged Weekend
MTV 7.00am
Now this unplugged series is gettin' outa hand. OK, we've enjoyed Clapton and Sting and Springsteen - but this weekend there are all those guys PLUS 30 more. All half hour slots, all acoustic sets, all absolutely magnificent television and the climax of one of the best ideas ever in music.

SPORT

Greyhound Derby Sky Sports 9.00pm
From the Wimbledon dog track, the biggest night in the sport as six of the best race around the 480m track in less than 30 seconds. What a swell way to lose a lot of money.

Top Choice

FILMS

Only The Lonely
Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm
Oh, John Candy, you're so lovable! And yet ... that's the one flaw of this movie – how could shy little Ally Sheedy ever fall for a Chicago cop called Danny Muldoon (Candy)? Never mind, because Candy's mother can't work it out either and she just wants her live-at-home son to stay tied to her apron strings instead of glued to amorous Ally. Now where do your loyalties lie on this one?

GENERAL

North and South
Sky One 8.00pm
With a plot too complicated for one paragraph and with a starring cast list too lengthy for one lifetime, this so-called blockbusting 12-part series set around the American Civil War is a turbulent mixture of emotions, war, friendship and that all important love element. Patrick* (Dirty Dancing) *Swayze puts his best foot forward for the next six Sundays and Mondays.

SPORT

Indy Car Grand Prix
Eurosport 9.00pm
Whether Mr Mansell is still driving in this championship or whether he is in hospital, Indy Car is for real men. The down side is that it takes two and a half hours to complete these races.

Sunday continues overleaf . . .

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Grievous Bodily Harm
The Movie Channel 10.00pm
An Australian-made thriller delves into the murky story of dead bodies and a disturbed man who is obsessed with the idea that his dead wife is still alive and on the murder trail. Pity poor crime reporter John Waters who gets stuck in the middle of all this and tries to escape with his life and notebook in tact.

GENERAL

KYTV
UK Gold 10.30pm
I still love this show. The tongues are buried in those cheeks as the make-believe television station plumbs the depths of presentation, camera work and everything in between. This week's episode crosses a mature sex discussion with news from the Thodding By-Election. Sounds too good to be true. You can start making up the jokes already.

SPORT

European Basketball Championships
Eurosport 6.00pm
It's not the NBA, but it is a bunch of tall guys looping the ball into the string bag with monotonous regularity. Tonight it's the final live.

FILMS

Frankenstein Created Woman
Bravo 12 midnight
There may have been hundreds of film Frankenstein's, but nobody does it better than Peter Cushing. Not content with the original storyline, in this 1966 caper, Pete puts the soul of a dead man into the body of his dead lover/girlfriend. Is it any wonder that a spate of murder ensues? Honestly, Pete, you should know better after all these years.

GENERAL

EastEnders
UK Gold 8.00pm
Every now and again it pays in the long term to see others who are worse off than you. It only takes one episode of this London soap to realise that living anywhere but Albert Square has to be paradise. So you can watch for half an hour and count your blessings at the same time.

SPORT

World Team Pool Championships
Sky Sports 11.00pm
From Las Vegas, Nevada (where else?) comes this challenge between 16 of the best at the nine-ball game. Five ball in the corner pocket, please.

Tuesday continues overleaf...

Viewer's choice

FILMS

El Diablo
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
Doesn't sound like a comedy. And when I tell you John Carpenter wrote the script, then you might call me a fibber. But it's true as Anthony Edwards stars as a school teacher in the late 1800s caught up in the kind of kidnap adventure which he had only ever read about in books. You see, there were no movies in those days to teach the teachers about life. Who said that?

GENERAL

The Bill
UK Gold
This show is supposed to be Z Cars, The Sweeney and Hill Street Blues all levered into a nightly half hour. It's got real-looking heroes who have our kind of problems - including a way of getting into trouble that takes a whole team of script writers weeks to fathom out.

SPORT

Rugby League, New Zealand vs Australia
Sky Sports 10.00am
The third and final test between the giants of the southern hemisphere's game. The Aussies should be lifting the trophy by now, but the League All Blacks will lie down for now one.

Wednesday continues overleaf...

Mark Jeffries, producer and presenter of Super Channel's 'green' magazine 'Eco Record', tells 'Cable Guide' about his fear of dentistry and uniforms

Super Channel's Mark Jeffries

What would you change about your personal appearance?

I wouldn't mind being a bit slimmer and maybe an inch taller.

With whom do you most like being?

My fiancee, Linda.

When have you been most happy?

Life right now is as good as it has ever been, so now really.

When have you been least happy?

There are always low periods in my life but, thankfully, I can't really isolate anything in particular.

Under what circumstances would you be dishonest?

In emergencies and as long as no one would get hurt – and maybe in this interview!

What is your least appealing characteristic?

Hay fever.

What characteristic in others annoys you the most?

Over-loud over-confidence with a dash of falseness.

Who do you most admire?

If I isolate television as a category, I admire the achievements of Chris Evans and Phillip Schofield on British television.

Who do you least admire?

I can't answer that because I am still in contact with that person!

What is your favourite film and/or TV programme?

Rainman is my all-time favourite film, I love it. As far as television is concerned, Coronation Street comes first with Star Trek: The Next Generation coming a close second at Warp Factor 4.

What is your least favourite film and/or TV programme?

Damage was a dreadful film, I walked out of it. I will NEVER sit in front of Emmerdale.

Who is your favourite actor/performer?

French and Saunders are superb, consistently very funny.

Who is your least favourite actor/performer?

Les Dennis just doesn't agree with my digestion.

What is your favourite record/piece of music?

Don Henley and The Boys of Summer will always be my favourite song.

What is your least favourite record/piece of music?

Grandma, We Love You by the St Winifred School Choir is not one of my all-time favourites.

Where do you see yourself in five years' time best/worst scenario?

Best: a happy, healthy and successful television personality, happily married, maybe one child, lots of foreign travel. Worst: working in a school uniform shop and having to visit the dentist every day.

Underwater Paradise!

A Discovery Off Anahola

by Robert Lyn Nelson

A stunning porcelain collector plate

As a solitary bird circles near Anahola Valley, daybreak finds the lush Hawaiian island of Kauai still sleeping. But a wondrous world stirs under the waves! Two sleek dolphins swim just beneath the surface, hoping to soak up the first warm rays of sun, while other exotic species celebrate a new day in paradise.

Now, this spectacular aquarium of delights has been captured on a stunning new porcelain collector plate by leading marine artist Robert Lyn Nelson. His unique "two world" style gives the collector the unusual ability to observe the beauty of nature from both above and below the ocean's surface.

Fine porcelain trimmed with 22ct gold

This beautiful piece of art has been expertly recreated on a fine porcelain collector plate and is trimmed with 22ct gold. Your plate will bear Nelson's signature, be serially numbered, and accompanied by a matching numbered Certificate of Authenticity.

No obligation

A Discovery Off Anahola is the first issue in a new series of collector plates entitled Underwater Paradise. Each issue will feature a magnificent Robert Lyn Nelson painting which vividly captures the splendour of the tropical world. By acquiring A Discovery Off Anahola, you'll have the opportunity - with no obligation - to collect the remaining plates in this series.

No risk

A Discovery Off Anahola costs just £19.95 and can be yours by simply completing the reservation form. There's no risk. If you are not completely satisfied, you may return the plate within thirty days for a full refund.

Please act promptly

Robert Lyn Nelson's devoted collectors include many international celebrities. Therefore, we expect an enthusiastic response and availability may not be able to keep pace. To avoid disappointment, do be sure to post your reservation today to Danbury Mint, Cox Lane, Chessington, Surrey, KT9 1SE

Breath of life,

Marilyn Monroe™

Her legend. Her legacy. Her love. Live on in an officially authorised porcelain portrait collector doll.

She was with us for a very short time. But she will never be forgotten. Her compelling blue eyes and sweeping eyelashes. Her rich red lips and creamy white complexion. Her stunning platinum hair and famous beauty mark.

Now, for the first time ever, the Estate of Marilyn Monroe and Twentieth Century Fox jointly authorise a porcelain collector doll of Marilyn Monroe as Lorelei Lee in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes.© Re-created from actual photographs and movie stills. She's spectacular. Her long pink-gloved arm held high in the air. Her unforgettable features painted by hand. Dressed in pink satin. Strapless. Slit up the back. And dripping with faux diamonds — just as when she sang "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend." A dazzling tribute. A collector doll of rare beauty. Just £225, payable in convenient monthly instalments. Marilyn Monroe. Available only from Franklin Heirloom Dolls.

Lifelike doll shown smaller than actual size of 19" tall.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

If you wish to return any Franklin Mint purchase, you may do so within 30 days of your receipt of that purchase for replacement, credit or refund.
